Bastrop County, Texas

Established in 1832 as part of Stephen F. Austin's "Little Colony", Bastrop is the second oldest incorporated city in Texas and is also the county seat of Bastrop County. The town is at the junction of state highways 71, 21, and 95. The surrounding counties include Travis, Lee, Fayette and Caldwell. Bastrop has ready access to the cultural and educational opportunities offered in nearby Austin - Texas' State Capital -, as well as vocational experiences that come from our picturesque setting along the Colorado River in the piney woods. Our central location puts Bastrop within a short drive of major colleges and universities.

Within the past few years, rapid growth has occurred in Bastrop, making it the financial and business center of Bastrop County. Major growth has occurred along the Highway 71 Corridor to Austin. With Austin Bergstrom International Airport within 20 minutes of Bastrop, the city is prepared and encourages the growth and activity expected. Bastrop is projected to be in the top five fastest growing counties in Texas during this decade, with a projected county population of 76,374 in 2011. New housing is a reality, while preservation of our historical areas is a top priority.

Incorporated cities in the County include:

Bastrop is located in the central part of the county and has a current estimated population exceeding 8,000. The Bastrop Independent School District has an enrollment of 8,952 students for the 2010/2011 school year which include fourteen campuses. The newest one being the Cedar Creek High School which opened in the fall of 2010. Bastrop offers several recreational facilities including state and city parks, swimming pools, tennis courts a movie theater and bowling entertainment center. Bastrop also enjoys three excellent 18-hole golf courses; including the new Wolf dancer course at the Hyatt Regency Lost Pines Resort. Additionally, Bastrop's historical roots run deep. Our 130 plus buildings listed in the National Register of Historical Places recently earned Bastrop the title "Most Historic Small Town in Texas." Nestled on the banks of the Colorado River, the historic district is filled with a variety of shops and restaurants. There are ten bed and breakfast inns, two museums and a newly remodeled library also located in Bastrop. With over forty churches, Bastrop serves a diversity of religious denominations. Bastrop also has three nursing homes and one assisted living facility. The City of Bastrop also offers a new state of the art hospital as well as a new professional services facility which houses several medical doctors. Opening summer of 2011, the city will have a new Convention/Expo Center. Major employers in the city include Bastrop ISD, Hyatt Resort, Walmart, Bastrop Co., LCRA, Bluebonnet Electric and Agilent Technologies.

Elgin is located in the north part of the county and has an estimated population of 9,595. The Elgin Independent School District has an enrollment of 3,995 students for the 2010/2011 school year which include seven campuses. There are twenty seven churches established in the city, a library, six medical doctors, three dentists and one nursing home. Elgin has gained national recognition for its hot sausage. It also hosts several historical landmarks and has over fifty dealers of antiques and collectibles. It has been designated by the National Trust for Historic Preservation as a National Main Street Community. Major employers in the city include Elgin ISD, HEB Grocery, Elgin-Butler Brick, Acme Brick and The City of Elgin.

Smithville, which is located in the southeast area of Bastrop County, has an estimated population of 4,500. The Smithville Independent School District has an enrollment of 1,662 for the 2010/2011 school year which includes four campuses. There are twenty churches in Smithville and recreational facilities include a recreation center, four parks, six tennis courts and Buescher State Park, a popular destination for bikers. Smithville meets the needs of their community with an up to date hospital, two clinics, a nursing home and twenty five medical doctors as well as committed medical staff. Smithville is home to several museums, antiques and seven restaurants. The city is also home to the only airport facility in the county.

Figures from the U.S. Census Bureau show Bastrop County's population grew more than fifty percent from 1990 to 2000. With the continued growth from 2000 to 2006, the county's population has grown to approximately 74,876, making Bastrop the 9th fastest growing county in the state and the 36th in the country. Bastrop residents are part of a close community. Our tremendous growth trends consistently raise the standard of excellence, yet we are small enough to know and care for each other.
